

Blue Whale Blues

Robin Gilmour and Iain Gilmour

Verse 1

The ocean was the place I loved to be,
Until the nasty rubbish came to sea.
When bits of plastic wrap around my tail,
Pollution has gone way beyond the pale.
Time to take some action,
Time to make a stand,
Or you'll find the only whales are skeletons on land.

Chorus

It ain't good news, I got the Blue Whale Blues,
And life on the blue planet's got me down.
Feels like the sea has got it in for me,
If only I could make my sorrows drown.

Verse 2

Why do you live like that? Don't understand.
Why don't you show respect for all the land?
But now that bits of rubbish are afloat,
To be quite blunt it really gets my goat.
Time to take some action,
Time to make a stand,
Or you'll find the only whales are skeletons on land.

Chorus

It ain't good news, I got the Blue Whale Blues,
And life on the blue planet's got me down.
Feels like the sea has got it in for me,
If only I could make my sorrows drown.

Bridge

Don't sit there and say it's someone else's fault,
Ev'ryone must share the blame.
All of you have got to change the way you act,
Or the world won't be the same.

Chorus

It ain't good news, I got the Blue Whale Blues,
And life on the blue planet's got me down.
Feels like the sea has got it in for me,
If only I could make my sorrows drown.
If only I could make my sorrows drown.
If only I could make my sorrows drown.
